

SPONSORSHIP INFORMATION

STUDENTS FOR ECONOMIC JUSTICE SUMMER INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

At the Center on Policy Initiatives (CPI), we know that the foundation of social change is organized and informed people. For this reason, the Students for Economic Justice (SEJ) internship program is critical.

The Students for Economic Justice (SEJ) summer internship is a full-time, intensive 6-week program that empowers students through leadership and professional development opportunities. SEJ gives undergraduate college students organizing experience in a current San Diego campaign for economic justice. Interns receive trainings from key community and labor leaders throughout San Diego to build an intersectional approach to economic and social justice. SEJ interns are placed at sites (e.g. community organizations, advocacy groups, labor unions) to gain hands-on organizing experience, while earning a living wage of $22/hour.

SEJ is made possible by the generous support of our community. By sponsoring the SEJ program, you are helping to build the next generation of social justice leaders. Thank you!

EXAMPLES OF SUPPORT:

- $12,000 Support the worker justice team work for two months
  - $5,500 Support one intern's wages
  - $2,500 Support CPI translation needs for six months
- And more!
